

J. Wheeler

Dear Miss Wheeler,

I have enjoyed being in your classes this year. Red Cross, First Aid, Library, etc. Although sometimes I don't see how you could help but throw me out.

You have a grand personality.

Marian Cliff

Dear Miss Wheeler

Some people insist on picking apart a teacher or fellow student.

People are to be honored in every walk of life, no matter how low it is.

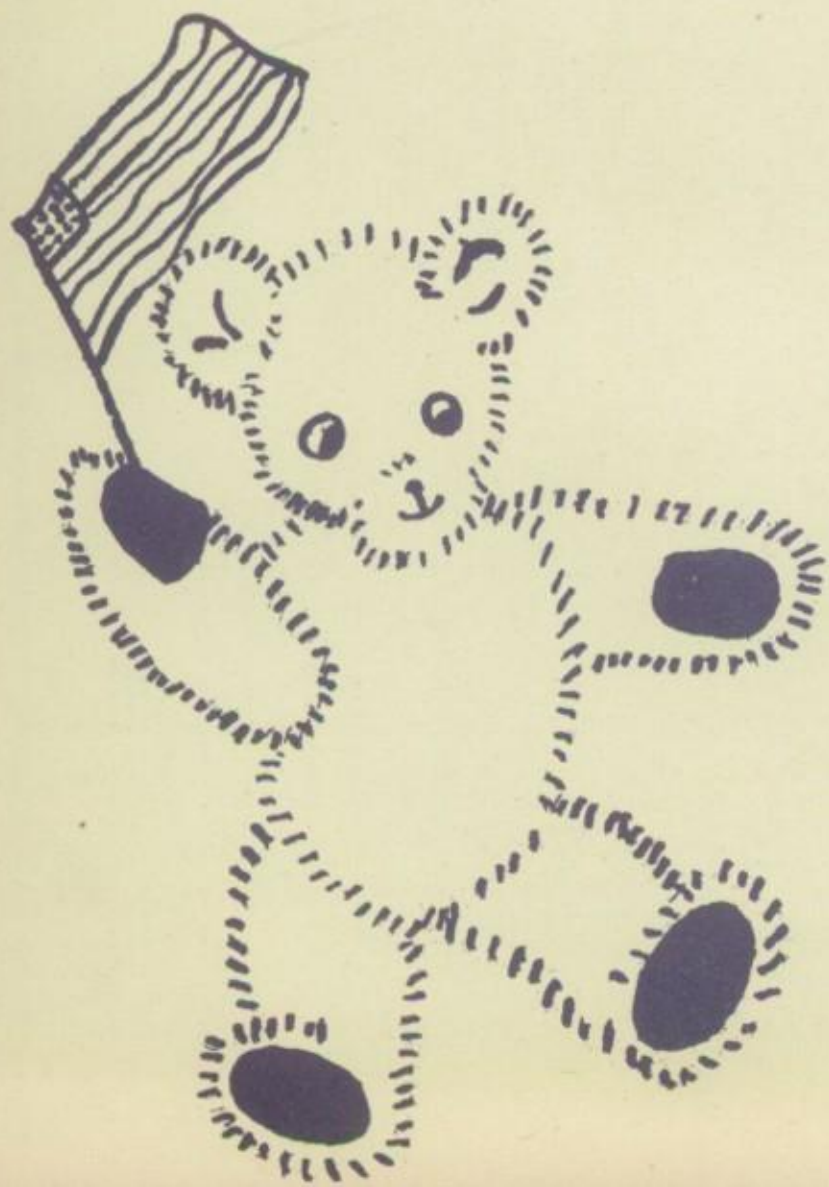

Teachers are, I think, to be honored the most of anyone. They must take, think, and straighten out things which are to the benefit of the student rather than herself.

I've hereby extended my thoughts to the utmost of my ability in congratulating you as one of the best liked teachers in the old R. H. S.

As Ever

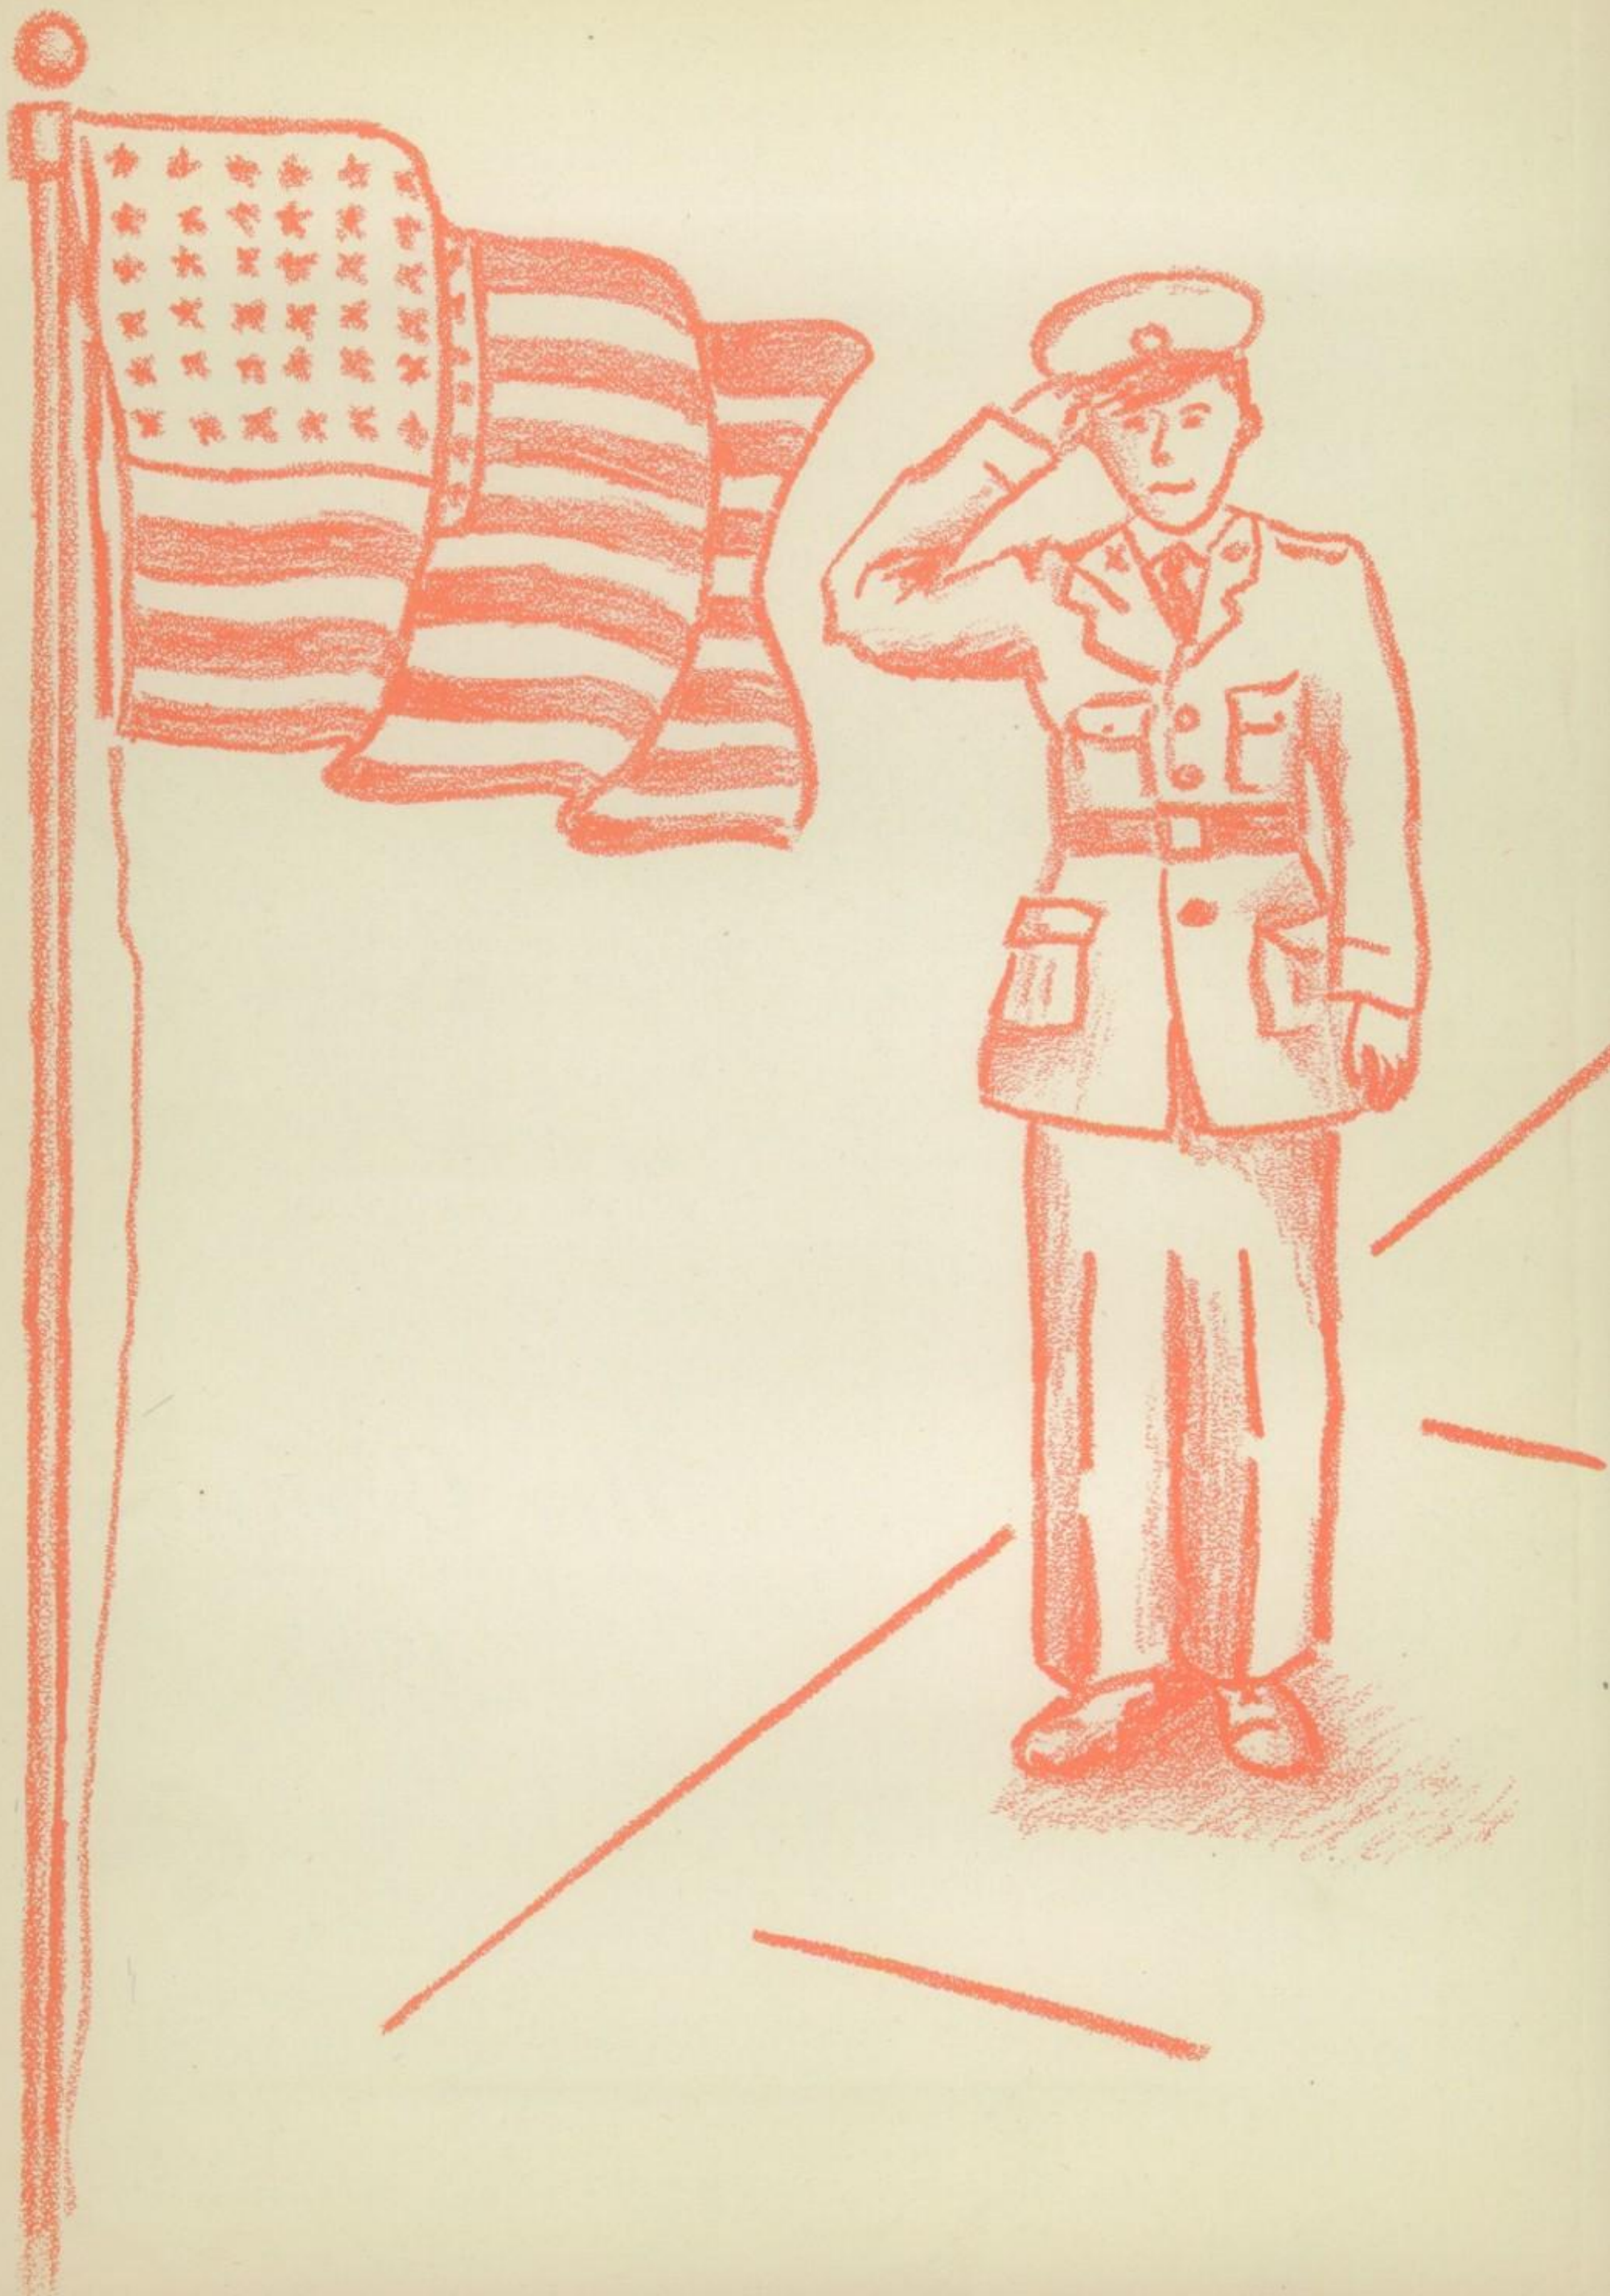

Don. Boever (Lophmore).

OF REEDSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Miss Wheeler —

I think you the sweetest teacher in R.H.S. and I hope I'll have you for one more year.

Love "Larry"

"Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.'
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!"

Dear Miss Wheeler:

I've enjoyed having you for homeroom and being our class advisor. Best of luck to a swell
year

This Gleaner is respectfully dedicated to all the alumni of Reedsburg High School now serving in the armed forces of this country.

JUNIOR SERGEANTS

Junior Officers: Bill Gleason, President; Ruth Sorge, Loyalty Representative; Jean Roloff, Secretary-Treasurer; Raymond Hayes, Vice-President.

After two years of basic training the Juniors started their third year as Sergeants. On October twenty-third they out maneuvered the other ranks by taking first place for their homecoming stunt "Fuehrer Speaks." Hats off to Bob Schweke's interpretation!

"A White Christmas" was the theme of the regiment's party held in the High School Recreation Hall, Friday, December eleventh. Santa was there, too.

The Juniors are proud of their football record. Nine of the well trained soldiers received letters. They were: Marvin Schuette, Ray Hayes, Verne Westedt, John Dobson, Harold Schultz, Tom Meyer, Charles Montgomery, Bill Gleason, and Bill McCarthy.

The highlight of the school year was the annual prom held Friday night, April thirtieth at the South School Auditorium. The Grand March was led by King Bill Gleason and his Queen Jean Roloff.

Daily drill was quite strenuous, but still the Junior "Sergeants" find time to volunteer for additional services in such fields as Band, Orchestra, Choir, Chorus, Gleaner, Newspaper, Debate, and Rod and Gun Club.

The end of the third year of basic training approaches and the Juniors eagerly look forward to becoming the candidates for officers training in 1944.

SOPHOMORE CORPORALS

After the first difficult year as "buck privates," most of the sophomores returned to Camp Reedsburg in September, 1942. They were no longer green freshmen or "rookies," but corporals in the school camp. For their leaders the sophomores chose the following officers. Jack Gavin, president; Jean Gavin, vice-president; Shirley Hagen, secretary and treasurer; and Mary Dorow, Loyalty representative.

Attuned to the war effort, many sophomores engaged in useful extra-curricular activities. In the newly organized Junior Red Cross chapter, Jean Gavin was president, Joyce Kleeber, secretary, and Donna Faye Geffert, treasurer. In the various departments, Shirley Hagen was chairman of sewing, Delores Foss, chairman of knitting, Audrey Miller, chairman of crafts, and Eldora Meyer was chairman of awards. Football was another activity which included many sophomore participants. John Burdick was outstanding among other good players which included James Barney, Jack Gavin, and James Hall. Active players in basketball were Jack Gavin, John Burdick, James Hall, and Robert Gallagher.

In all-school activities, the sophomores presented a homecoming skit, and many sophomores took part in the annual Christmas program. Members of the choir included Delores Foss, June Karow, Lester Long, Shirley Reynolds, Jimmie Tibbitts, Marguerite Clements, and Bernice Thorne. In the spring of the year the sophomores sponsored the all school Valentine Party and ended another successful year with the Loyalty banquet and dance.

FRESHMAN PRIVATES

Freshman Officers: Delores Muchow, Loyalty Representative; Bette Lou Ende, Secretary-Treasurer; James Randall, President; Nancy Lou Christie, Vice-President.

The Freshmen, although only buck privates did much to add color and life to the school year. This company, on duty until 1946 possesses everything that is necessary to make its four years at R.H.S. not only enjoyable but worthwhile.

The company reported for basic training and elected as its officers: Jim Randall, Commanding Officer; Betty Lou Ende, Second in Command; Nancy Lou Christie, Quartermaster; and Delores Muchow, Loyalty Consultant.

Under their company lieutenant, Miss Wheeler, they participated in homecoming activities, class stunts, and spring festivities exhibiting fine showmanship and proving to be good sports.

The party sponsored by the rookies was a huge success, and their Loyalty decorations were outstanding.

Among them we find some prospective commandos in the persons of these athletes: Jim Randall, John O'Malley, Jim Davis, John Smith, Art Cady, Rodney Siegert, and David Dobson.

An activity especially favored by the frosh boys was the Rod and Gun Club. Some of the girls were conscientious members of the Junior Red Cross. On the Safety Patrol were Jim Davis, Earhardt Schaefer, and Carl Steinweg. Other activities to which freshmen contributed their services were: Dramatics, Camera Club, Physical Fitness, and Speech Club.

These rookies proved to the older "non coms" that Freshman Buck Privates are just as necessary as Generals.

Mr. Ritzenthaler

The band, as an organization of volunteer recruits, began its regular Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday drill on September 9. With Mr. Ritzenthaler as captain, it progressed to a high rank by February. The first drill was begun on the football field, where the band marched into many formations. Sometimes the ranks weren't straight, but they were remedied by Sergeant Bob Meyer. The rehearsals held on each Wednesday night during the summer helped the volunteers get into the routine. The corporals helped the volunteers over the bumps of preliminary training.

Out of the band were chosen several members to make up the pep band which led the homecoming and spring parades. At pep meetings held in the main "barrack" the pep band was a main factor in strengthening morale.

The Mid-Winter Concert Series was opened and closed with concerts presented by the band on January 16 and March 21. These were well attended by the townspeople.

The band brought back many high honors from the annual tournament in the spring and finished the year by playing the processional march and other selections at the Commencement Exercises on June 4.

THE BREEZE

Composed of members of both the Senior and Junior High School, the orchestra has endeavored to give to its members and audience an appreciation of the finer types of music.

Its first appearance of the year was made on the Mid-Winter Concert Series January 31. February 16 the orchestra furnished the music for the Senior Class Play, and on May 31 concluded a successful year at the Baccalaureate Exercises.

MUSIC BUILDS MORALE

The aim of these voluntary organizations is to acquire a better ear for a cappella singing and close harmony. December 18 was an important date for the choir and chorus when they presented an unusually fine Christmas Concert. The choir, singing as an informal group, often led community "sings" at our weekly assembly programs. Contributing to the mid-winter concert series the choir and chorus on March 7 gave an excellent performance. To close a successful year, they participated in the annual music festival held in the spring.

THE GLEANER

The atmosphere in room 205 fairly hummed as the Gleaner "assembly line" turned out page after page of the yearly record of Reedsburg High School. The foreman, Jean Schroeder, ably assisted by business manager, Jack Rindfleisch, made clear cut plans and saw that they were carried out. John Dobson and Violet Struck were busy learning the ropes and storing away ideas for next year's edition.

Lorayne hounded the Seniors until they had all visited Meyer's Studio so that Mildred, Helen, and Virginia could slash the Senior pictures and fit them together. Jean Wischoff shouldered the responsibility of getting the dope on the Seniors, and Ira put the faculty members in their places. Carol and Gordon were responsible for the art work which decorates pages here and there. Mac's eloquent description of the football season found a home spot on page forty-nine.

These and many other members of the staff frequently worked overtime on the "old assembly line" to bring you this 1943 military Gleaner.

THE MEGAPHONE

As regular as reveille was Editor Don Hyzer's announcement that "all articles must be turned in by Thursday of next week." But in spite of all, the staff turned out some of the finest issues in the Megaphone's history.

Remember that column "Dis 'n' Dat by Yosef 'n' Yack"? Joe Douglas, as humor editor, was responsible for that. We're sure that Jack McCormick will some day become a sports' reviewer due to the valuable experience he received as the Megaphone's Sports Editor. And of course you're still chuckling over Jimmy Tibbitts' article on St. Valentine. Jim worked in the feature department under Helen Lund. Our staff-elected editor for next year, Corrine Toepfer, gained her success through the clever pages of cartoons which poured from her pen.

Well, it's nearly time for taps, and I want to get back to the barracks and page through some of my issues of the Megaphone which recall vividly my high school days

Extemporaneous Speaking: John Dobson

"All those interested in Forensics work report to room 110." So began our Forensic season this year.

Those out for serious declamatory included Charlotte Donahue, Joyce Kleeber, Jeanette Riggert, Sid Dwyer, Helen Lund, Ruth Klitsner, De Lores Schultz, James Socha, and Carl Steinweg. Margaret Bohen, Frances Shedleski, Eleanor Stuebenvoll, June Karow, Delores Foss, Audrey Miller, and Rosemary Sass chose humorous declamatory while John Dobson represented R.H.S. in extemporaneous speaking.

At this writing the students are diligently at work on their selections. No definite schedule as yet has been arranged. The coaches are Miss Langer, Miss Dopp, Mrs. Engen, Miss Wheeler, and Miss Mork for declamatory, and Mr. Dunwiddie for extemporaneous speaking.

Some of the selections chosen were as follows:

Sid Dwyer..... "Submerged"
Charlotte Donahue..... "Buttons"
Ruth Klitsner..... "We are Proud"
Helen Lund..... "Riders to the Sea"
Margaret Bohen..... "Background"
June Karow... "The Lady from New York"

Dear Miss. Wheeler,

First of all I want to thank you for helping a freshman around. You've been positively "super". I'll see you next year and I'll be 'rootin' for you — "Stube"

Coaches: Miss Langer, Miss Mork, Mr. Dunwiddie, Mrs. Engen, Miss Wheeler.

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

"You can learn more through a keyhole than through college!" From the moment Grandma Tierney walked on stage in the person of Charlotte Donahue, the audience was in a continual uproar. Her witty remarks pleased her grandson, Jim, (alias Jack McCormick) and won the admiration of Joan, the French maid, capably enacted by Helen Lund. Joan's tricky dialect only annoyed William, the Tierney's butler. This gentleman's gentleman, portrayed by Bob Schweke, was compelled to pose as a Captain in the British Army, so that Mary (Helen Wickersham) might attend the Allen's dinner dance. George Allen (Jack Wagner) could not foresee what was to happen when he asked the disguised Captain to serve the punch. His identity as the Tierney's butler was immediately revealed by Genevieve Van Camp. Handsomely characterized by Margaret Bohen her sarcastic remarks added spice to this fast moving comedy. After Mary admitted she had come with her butler, Joan startled everyone by admitting she was a burlesque queen. Granny, who never had trusted the Van Camps, made Archie, Jack Rindfleisch, admit that he and Gen had stolen some bonds. With the help of Granny's keyhole knowledge, Mary and William, Jim and Joan embraced as the curtain fell on the third and final act.

The entire cast under the direction of Miss Mork turned in a commendable performance making this comedy by William Davidson one of the best senior class plays so far presented.

Soph. table wins first place

Air Corps was the theme for the Junior table.

"Loyalty," a word which is gaining for every American more meaning each day, has a double meaning for the students of Reedsburg High School.

Our Loyalty program carried on throughout the entire school year, provides an opportunity for the measuring of each student's loyalty to his class and to his school. During the year credits are earned by high attainments in scholarship, participation in athletics, musical, dramatic events, school attendance, and in many other activities.

A representative elected by each class totals the credits and debits and the trophy is awarded to the winning class at the annual Loyalty Banquet and Dance held in May. Last year the trophy was won by the class of '42.

King William Gleason, Queen Jean Roloff

The delightful "Ah-a-a-s" that came from those who walked down the ship's gangplank into the Hawaiian setting of the Junior Prom will long be remembered.

The swaying palm trees, mystic moon, and soft music made a charming and colorful picture that appealed to everyone. The grand march led by the king, Bill Gleason, and his queen, Jean Roloff, was the highlight of the evening.

The entire Junior class put forth every effort to make this Prom the grand success that it was.

SAFETY PATROL

In six years of service the Military Police of R.H.S. have maintained a perfect record. No student has been hurt on the way to or from school.

Our school police are sponsored by the American Legion which furnishes them with belts, badges, and raincoats. General Jerdeman has control over the four divisions of the city. Captain John Dobson heads the high school division pictured below.

All of these "M.P.'s" sign a pledge which is carried with them at all times. Their aim is to be of benefit to the school and community by "helping them to arrive safely."

HOMEROOMS

A system of homerooms was instituted in R.H.S. this year. Instead of the entire student body meeting in the assembly, we are divided into groups which meet in homerooms twice each day. Two days each week are spent as a homeroom period in which we may have debates, discussions, and programs on various subjects such as hygiene, manners, vocations, and current affairs. On two other days this period is used as an activity period when the various clubs meet, and on Friday all homeroom groups report to the assembly where we have programs presented by the homerooms or some of the other groups.

FOOTBALL

General Blake's soldiers experienced a season of ups and downs. The second front was started at Westfield. Reedsburg's commandos scored a decisive victory in their first offensive battle. Monroe, the second opponent, met R.H.S. at the local battlefield and after a gruesome fight they defeated the gallant boys in purple and white, 7-0. Richland Center's battalion ambushed our boys early in the game and emerged with a victory. The fighting forces of Reedsburg then traveled to Baraboo, where they fought two solid hours, finally having to retreat. They started homeward on the short end of a 30-19 score.

Reedsburg held its annual homecoming tilt with the Tomah Indians. The Redskins were slow in getting started, and at the halfway mark a "hot" Reedsburg squad led 23-7. The forward wall of Tomah was broken by the "snipers" commanded by General Blake for another tally in the second half, and when the white flag was finally raised Reedsburg climaxed a successful homecoming with a 33-7 victory.

Following the homecoming victory the commandos met the Orange and Black Division from Portage on the local field. The Portage team started fast and scored two quick touchdowns on Reedsburg. The "charge signal" was blown by Reedsburg's bugler and late in the second quarter Jack McCormick scored the first touchdown against the powerful Portage team. Portage won the game by a wide margin, but Reedsburg displayed its offensive power by scoring twice against a team that hadn't been scored on in any of its previous games.

The Wisconsin Dells team was the next victim for Reedsburg who literally annihilated the Dells' squad. Reedsburg won the game by a 33-7 score and by doing so gained possession of the "Laddie Helland Trophy." The last game of the 1942 football season was played against the Edgerton team who played host to the "army" from R.H.S. Reedsburg was beaten, but Edgerton will honestly say that the well trained visiting division was a worthy opponent.

Although this year's record isn't spotless, football is definitely on the upgrade in Reedsburg. Let's see more fellows out next year to aid General Blake and his men to a future championship squad.

About thirty-five enlisted men reported to the commanding officers at the athletic field at the start of the season. Twenty-four of these were rewarded for their efforts at the end of the season by receiving letters. Twelve of these lettermen were graduating seniors. They will be greatly missed next year, but this leaves enough "privates" to form a nucleus for R.H.S.'s 1943 "V" squad.

REINFORCEMENTS COMING UP

The "B" team builds raw athletes into performers who can compete with the best in the Southern Ten. Mr. Rice has turned out many good players who will carry the burden of the graduating seniors. The players who will probably be stars in the next few years are: Les Long, Wendall Daly, John O'Malley, Norman Holz, Jim Ellsessor, Bill Whitney, John Smith, Lyall Camp, Darrell Reinfeldt, David Dobson, Rodney Siegert, Jim Randall, Calvin Koenig, and Marvin Kampen.

The Junior High Squad was large this year and showed evidence that in the future another great team will be ready to follow in the footsteps of the many famous Reedsburg basketball teams. Outstanding on the squad were Bill Berning, Stuart Fondrie, and Billie Ableman.

Jack McCormick—Forward: The fastest and most deadly man in the Southern Ten, and probably in the state.

Don Goodman—Forward: His excellent teamwork enabled a great team to succeed. Rebounds, accuracy, and sharpshooting add up to—"Pete."

Harold Gavin—Guard: Gobby's great rebound work and his fighting Irish spirit put him where he belongs—on the first five.

Jack Rindfleisch—Center: The backbone of the team—a coach's dream at center. Riny could make any team.

Jack Gavin—Guard: As calm as any old timer. Next year's team will have a fine guard in Jack.

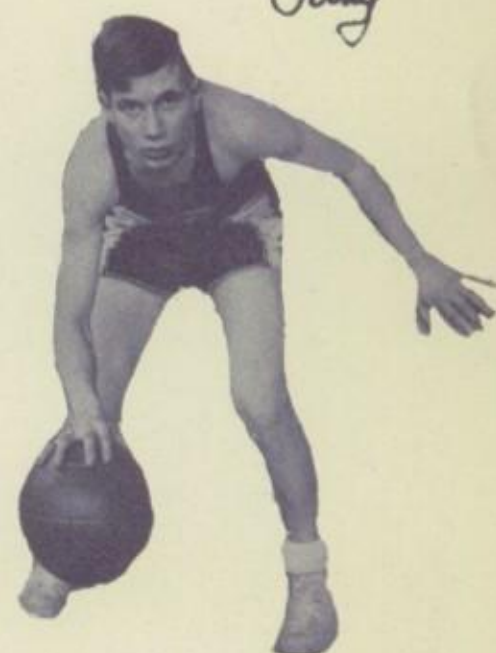

Marvin Schmitt—Guard: A stellar guard was "Marv." His calm and determined spirit held the team together.

Ray Miller—Forward: His fight and spirit were part of a great team.

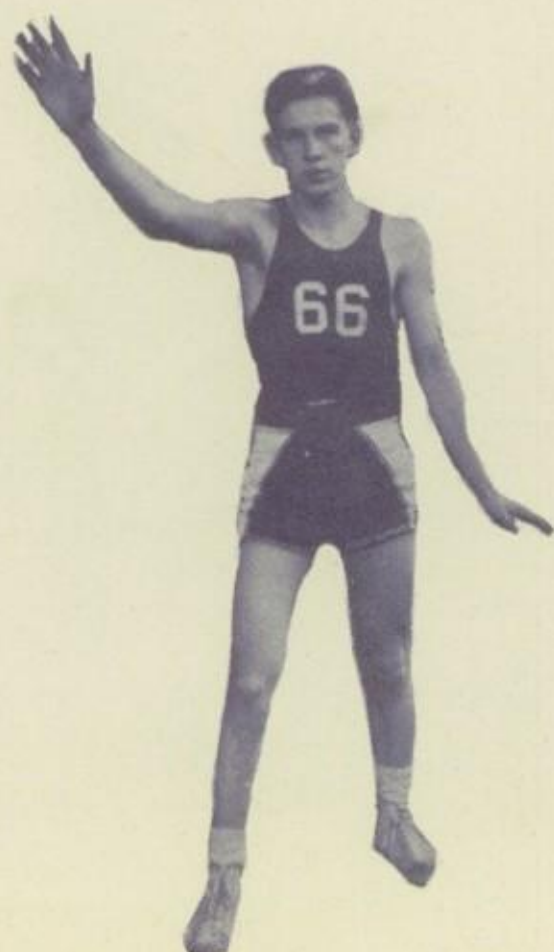

Jack Wagner—Guard: A great passer. He pulled the team out of many a tight spot.

Martin Berning—Center: Rebounds—they were his meat.

Jim Hall—Forward: A natural. Punty has the ability that will benefit the team next year.

"CHAMPS"

The R.H.S. Bucketeers' highly successful basketball season was closed with their participating in the State Tournament. Their record is one that every one in school as well as the community is proud of. The team is a champion in every sense of the word. In the Southern Ten Conference they won ten out of thirteen games for a share of the title. The Regional Tournament was held at Reedsburg and Coach Blake's boys won that, making them Regional Champions. Not satisfied with that, the team took part in the Sectional Meet held in East High at Madison. The fast-breaking team of ours also won that, beating the Big Eight School, Madison West, in the championship game. In the State Tournament the four sectional winners met, and the Reedsburg Bombardiers were definitely off form which cost them the State Title. Nevertheless the team had the honor of placing among the best four teams in the state.

In conference play the team lost the first game of the season to Monroe by a score of 22-20, the bombardiers decided they'd had enough of defeat so they went on to eight straight victories before they were surprisingly upset by a weaker Portage five. The team was downhearted and lost the following week to Stoughton for the only "double" loss of the year. Coach Blake's squad came back strong the following week to wallop their rivals from Baraboo for the second time by a score of 47-35. Reedsburg's strong five ended their conference season with an easy victory over the Black and Orange team from Richland Center. The final score was 39-25 virtually cinching a portion of the title for R.H.S.

The Regional Tournament was a two day affair highlighted by a victory for Reedsburg. On the first night we met Wisconsin Dells and swamped them with a 47-28 victory. In our second game played against a vastly improved Portage five, we squeezed out a 30-28 victory earning a chance to play the Montello team who had won seventeen straight games. The Regional Championship was won by R.H.S. as a result of a 34-24 victory over the strong Northern five.

Sectional Tournament—another championship

The Sectional was held on March 9 at Madison. The first hurdle which the veteran five of R.H.S. had to face was Galesville. The game was a thriller throughout with Reedsburg coming out on top by another 30-28 victory. That same evening R.H.S. played the favored Madison West team and beat them easily. They won 42-36 after holding a twelve point margin at one time. With this victory our team gained a reputation of being the fastest team in the state.

On that unlucky March 13 we sent to Madison the second State Tournament entry from Reedsburg. Tired from a tough twenty-two game schedule the team let down and was beaten in their first game by a rangy Shawano five. At night Blake's boys played Hurley, but again height defeated them, the final score being 34-21.

Reedsburg was talented with many individual stars. Jack McCormick, forward, was the scoring king in the Southern Ten. He scored a total of 199 points for 13 games. A 15 point average per game gave him the rank of third highest scorer in the state. Jack Rindfleisch, center, gained a reputation of being the outstanding center in the Conference as well as this section. Don Goodman, lanky guard, gained fame as a rebound artist and as a result earned a berth on one All-State Team as guard. Rindfleisch and McCormick were named on the All-Conference Five as well as both getting a first team berth on the All-Sectional Team. These boys' talents helped by the able assistance of Harold Gavin, forward, and cool-headed Marv Schmitt at guard won a grand total of eighteen games while only losing six. The boys were given excellent relief by Jack Wagner, guard, Ray Miller, hard working forward, Mart Berning, substitute center, Jim Hall, sharp Sophomore forward, and Jack Gavin, a stellar guard. Eight of these boys will graduate but Jack Gavin and Jim Hall will be back to carry the burden next year.

So loads and loads of orchids to Coach Milton Blake and his team who have brought fame and fortune to Reedsburg High School. We are really PROUD of our 1942-43 basketball team.

SQUADRON

Happy landing!

The R.H.S. 1942 track season was highlighted by the state meet held at Madison. Jack Rindfleisch was the only competitor from Reedsburg who succeeded in placing at state. He received a second in the broad-jump with a jump of 20 ft. 4½ inches only to be beaten by 2½ inches for the class "B" honors in the broad-jump.

At the Regional track meet held at La Crosse the track men of Reedsburg did very well. At this meet a first, second, or third place made you eligible for the state meet. Out of fifteen entries R.H.S. had seven who received a rating of third place or higher.

Point getters from Reedsburg were as follows:

- Reinfeldt, second in the mile
- Rindfleisch, first in the broad-jump
- McCormick, second in the 100
- Rindfleisch, second in the 200
- McCormick, third in the hurdles
- Leicher, third in the 200
- Behn, second in shot-put
- B. Breen, second in broad-jump
- H. Breen, second in high jump

With another season close at hand we feel certain that the up and coming sport at Reedsburg, track, will bring further honors to these boys and their Alma Mater.

EVENTS

FALL TRAINING

Sept. 8—School opens! Hey-ey did you see those new teachers? Heyeyeyey—did you see those new students?

Sept. 9—School work starts. The bewildered Freshmen gaze wonderingly about.

Sept. 11—Ha! First week over! Wasn't so bad, was it?

Sept. 16—First main room program—Dr. Schacht.

Sept. 18—Inter-squad game cancelled because of rain.

Sept. 21—Football practice starts in earnest.

Sept. 25—Westfield plays here. R.H.S. squad victorious, suffering only the loss of Jack Rindfleisch's tooth.

Sept. 30—September closes on a blustering day.

Oct. 2—The team loses its first game to Monroe.

Oct. 9—We played Richland Center and lost.

Oct. 16—A gay party in the High School Gym despite the loss of a game to Baraboo.

Oct. 19—Pigtail week starts. Upper classmen suddenly remember third graders.

Oct. 20—Not to be outdone by the girls in pigtails, the boys roll up their pants-legs. Now we know why they keep them covered.

Oct. 22—With hair put up and dreams of tomorrow, students of R.H.S. retire early.

Oct. 23—Homecoming—Reedsburg vs. Tomah. We won, but John Normington broke his leg. It's getting to be a habit, isn't it, John? We celebrated the victory by a dance at South School.

Oct. 30—A lull in the football season. Edgerton game postponed because of rain.

Oct. 31—Hallowe'en—Things were unusually quiet, perhaps because of the war.

Nov. 3—A middle of the week game which resulted in a bad defeat. We lost to Portage.

Nov. 5-6-7—The teachers go to convention; we have a vacation.

Nov. 9—The Edgerton game was postponed again because of a wet field. They must be afraid to face us.

Nov. 11—The all-important Dells' game results in a win for us and the possession of the Laddie Helland Trophy for another year.

Nov. 13—Played the twice postponed Edgerton game and were defeated. Miss Towne bids farewell.

Nov. 15—Miss Neitzel and Durwood McQueen are married.

Nov. 16—We have a new teacher in the Science-Math Dept.—Mr. Leonard Vig. The Ritzenthalers reign on third floor. Mrs. Ritzenthaler is replacing Miss Neitzel.

Nov. 23—The team played the first basketball game of the season—a double-header win from Hillsboro and Prairie du Sac.

Nov. 25—The team journeyed to Monroe. We lost the first conference game by two points.

Nov. 28—Thanksgiving vacation!

WINTER TACTICS

- Dec. 1—Won the basketball game from Baraboo.
 Dec. 4—Played another game with Wisconsin High and won.
 Dec. 11—Another big night! Won from Ft. Atkinson. Jimmy Randall broke his arm. We celebrated the basketball victory with a dance given by the Junior Class.
 Dec. 17—The choir and chorus under the direction of Mrs. McQueen gave a lovely program of Christmas music.
 Dec. 18—Won another basketball game from Wisconsin Dells. Say, our team is really good. Christmas vacation begins.
 Dec. 19—Another wedding! Mr. Dunwiddie was married in Madison. Looks as if the faculty is getting ready to "settle down."
 Dec. 30—Miss Hart announces her marriage. She knows how to keep a secret.
 Jan. 4—Back to school after two weeks of vacation.
 Jan. 8—Played Portage and won. Wheeee!
 Jan. 12—Defeated the Baraboo Five on their own floor.
 Jan. 15—Played Richland Center, there, and the team piled up another victory.
 Jan. 16—F.F.A. party in the High School Gym. It was called a success by all who attended.
 Jan. 17—A grand Sunday afternoon concert was given at the South School by the Reedsburg High School Band.
 Jan. 20—Semester exams start. What a headache!
 Jan. 21—A Red Cross matinee dance was attended by many.
 Jan. 22—We won another game—this time from Edgerton. Now we know our team is good.
 Jan. 23—The Class Play is postponed—the leading lady has the measles.
 Jan. 25—The start of the second semester. Three faculty changes: Mr. Kolberg was replaced by Mr. Friday, Miss Barton by Miss Gaertner, and Miss Risberg by Mrs. Engen.
 Jan. 26—Played a non-conference game and lost to Edgewood.
 Jan. 29—Avenge the Edgewood defeat by taking a game from the Dells.
 Jan. 30—The first Gleaner material goes to press. (Hope it's acceptable)
 Feb. 1—I've heard rumors that Jean Roloff is to be Prom Queen.
 Feb. 4—The team played the second game with Portage. This time we lost.
 Feb. 11—Yawns and scowls greeted us this morning. (Shh! Faculty party last night.)
 Feb. 12—Lincoln's birthday program. Lost the basketball game to Stoughton. Too bad!
 Feb. 14—A fine concert was given by the Junior Band. Dress rehearsal for the Senior Class Play.
 Feb. 16—The Class Play was presented to a full house. The modern comedy, "Thru the Keyhole" was well received.
 Feb. 18—Played basketball with Baraboo on our home floor. We won. Why do we get so excited?
 Feb. 20—An all-day Saturday Session on Gleaner work.
 Feb. 26—Defeated Richland Center. We're heading for the tournament!

SPRING ACTION

- Mar. 4—Reedsburg plays host to many "out of towners" at the first of the Tournament games. We beat the Dells.
- Mar. 5—The team won from Portage. Was that a thriller! In the evening we won from Montello and became Regional Champions. We certainly are proud of the boys.
- Mar. 6—Wasn't it nice of the Sophomores to have their party on the sixth so that we could celebrate the tournament?
- Mar. 9—Sectional Tournament at Madison East. The local boys looked very good, winning both games and the Sectional Championship. They defeated Galesville and Madison West. Gee, now they go to State!
- Mar. 10—Not much school today—yawns and sleepiness prevail. We all wish the team the best of luck.
- Mar. 13—Half the school went to Madison to see the team play at the Field House in the State Tournament. The superior height of the other teams proved disastrous to the R.H.S. five for they lost both games.
- Mar. 14—The Band presented a Sunday afternoon concert.
- Mar. 15—Ice! Miss Davis slips and hurts her leg.
- Mar. 17—Lots of green seen today. The Home Economics classes celebrated by giving a lovely tea.
- Mar. 19—Miss Davis discovers she has a broken bone in her leg.
- Mar. 21—Spring starts! The choir and chorus present the last in the series of Mid-Winter concerts.
- Mar. 26—Vacation starts! Finally!
- April 5—Back to school again. Everyone looks rested.
- April 14—We really are enjoying these Spring days.
- April 28—We can hardly wait. Prom only two days off.
- April 30—Junior Prom—a Hawaiian setting—palm trees twelve feet tall.
- May 15—The Loyalty Banquet—no rationing evident here.
- May 30—Baccalaureate address. It was a very serious occasion.
- June 4—Commencement Exercises. School's out!
